

Privacy Policy

DBC Training takes the responsibility of Data Protection very seriously and respects the privacy of all individuals we come into contact with by strictly adhering to The General Data Protection Regulation.

You have been given this policy because DBC Training collects, uses and stores information about data subjects it works with. This means that we process your personal data or information and it is your right to know how we use this information, whether it is stored on computers or stored in paper records.

DBC Training is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected and that the information held by us is secure. In order to prevent loss, unauthorised disclosure, unauthorised access or alteration and controlled destruction of data, we have put in place physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect from you, including your online details.

Data Subject – The term data subject is used in place of learner, client, customer, employee, supplier etc from here on the term data subject is used to identify any individual or group that DBC hold data on unless we are making specific reference to those individuals.

Consent

This Privacy Notice is supported by a Consent Form which you are asked to sign to give your consent to DBC Training for obtaining and securing your personal information. We ask that you sign the form after reading this policy to confirm your understanding of how we process, store and use your details which we will keep on record.

If you are under 16 years of age, we will need to obtain the signed consent from your parent/legal guardian.

Your rights

Every data subject can ask us:

- How we use your information
- Who we pass it to
- For a copy of the information we hold on you
- To correct it if the information is wrong
- To erase the information we hold on you

As an organisation we will:

- Not allow the information to be used or seen by anyone who should not see it
- Give you a copy of your personal information if you ask for it within 1 month of verifying your request

Why do we collect personal information about you?

We collect information to allow us to carry out the work of DBC Training, delivering training and apprenticeships within our Centres, in employers' premises, in community sites, and through our various subcontractors/subcontracts. We are required to collect this information by the Department for Education, Ofsted (our Regulatory body) and our funding bodies, such as the Education & Skills Funding Agency and the Department for Work & Pensions, in order to deliver our services to the required standards and to secure funding.

Processing this information is necessary to meet the contractual obligations entered into by enrolment on a training or apprenticeship programme and in order for us to meet our legal obligations.

When entering a training or apprenticeship programme with DBC Training the enrolment, or contract, includes your consent to DBC Training processing your information in line with this Privacy Policy. You have the right to refuse to provide this consent however it should be noted that if you fail to provide the information required for enrolment and completion of any training, course or apprenticeship, or information required for funding purposes, DBC Training may be unable to fulfil the contract for provision of services to you. You also have the right to withdraw your consent to us processing your personal data at any time and this can be done by speaking to any DBC staff member or by writing to the Centre Manager, but again this may affect the continuing delivery of any training or apprenticeship programme you are enrolled on.

As a responsible employer, DBC Training will collect personal information from potential employees and obtain references. DBC Training will process personal data about its employees in connection with their individual contracts of employment and in order to comply with its legal obligations as an employer. You have the right to refuse consent, or withdraw your consent at any time. It must be noted however that this may affect your employment with DBC.

What do we use the information for?

- We will use the information collected from you to enable enrolment and participation through to completion in our training and apprenticeship programmes and secure funding for your programme.
- We will use your information for our own internal record keeping.
- We may use your information to improve our products and services.
- We will use your information to ensure we protect your health, safety and welfare.
- We use information about our employees to perform our duties and legal obligations as an employer.

As an organisation committed to excellence, we may want to use your information to send you promotional emails about new products, special offers or other information which we think you may find interesting. Sometimes we may also use your information to contact you for internal market research purposes and use the information you provide to customise our website according to your interests. Before we use your information in this way, we will ask for your agreement and obtain your consent to do this.

What sort of information do we keep?

The sort of information we keep may include:

- Your name, age or date of birth

- Your contact details including address, email address and telephone numbers
 - National Insurance Number
 - Your ethnicity or national origin
 - Emergency contact or next of kin details
 - Health information
 - Unspent criminal convictions
 - Demographic information such as post code, preferences and interests
 - Other information relevant to customer surveys and/or offers
- For employees we will collect the information needed for your HR record which include NI Number, ethnic origin, gender, disability, health details, bank details, next of kin, references, criminal convictions, qualifications and pension information.

Who do we share your information with?

We will need to share the information we hold about you such as your personal details, education details, employment details, achievements and attendance with:

- Ofsted (the Regulatory Body for Training & Education)
 - Employers
 - Funding agencies such as the Education & Skills Funding Agency
 - Awarding Bodies who verify your qualification and award your Certificates
 - Referrers (such as Job Centres, Guardians, other referring agencies)
 - Delivery Teams
 - Auditors
 - Other relevant departments, such as Payroll, Pensions and Finance
 - The people that line manage you
 - Electronic management systems, such as e-days, DBS Checks, LRS, Xuper, Survey Monkey, PICs, ForSkills, Pitman Campus, Barclays etc
 - Subcontractors
- There may be occasions when we are legally required to share information with statutory agencies such as the Police, Local Authorities, Courts or HMRC. This may be in relation to Safeguarding risks, criminal or civil proceedings or fraud. Information can be shared without your consent in these circumstances.
- We will not share your information with third parties unless requested. For example we may be required to share details of your attendance and participation with your Referrer (this may be a Job Centre or other agency who has referred you to us), with your Employer, with your Parents or Guardian. We will inform you of these requests but by giving your consent to us processing your information, your consent includes your agreement to us sharing details of your attendance and participation with your referrer.
- For employees, we will not share your information with third parties without your consent where it does not relate to your responsibilities as an employee, or our obligations as an employer. For example there may occasions when we are requested for information about you from financial organisations, for instance if you are applying for a mortgage, and before providing any details, we will obtain your consent to do this.
- There may be other occasions when we are requested to provide information we hold on you, and we will seek your explicit consent to do this.

- We will not sell, distribute or release your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so.

How long do we keep your information?

We will keep your details and the documents or file associated with your learning programme for a period of 2 years from the end of the programme. This may be extended to 3 years if files are selected for auditing by external quality assessors.

Any financial documentation related to funding of your programme must be retained for the period set by the funding body (e.g. Education & Skills Funding Agency). This is usually for 10 years after the financial year end in which the programme ends as a minimum.

For employees, we will retain Personnel Records and Employee Contracts for 6 years after employment ends or Termination.

We will retain retirement and pensions records permanently.

How to get a copy of the information we hold on you

You have the right to make a Data Subject Access Request to receive a copy of the information we hold about you. A payment may be incurred for the request, and we will provide the information to you within one month of receiving and verifying your request.

To request a copy of the information we hold on you, you will need to contact the Data Protection Lead for DBC Training in writing or by completing a Subject Access Request form which can be provided by any member of staff and sent to:

- By post to Vicki Zolkiewicz, 3-4 St Peters Churchyard, Derby, DE1 1NN
- By email to vicki@dbc-training.co.uk
- By telephone on 01332 295588

You will need to provide:

- All personal details as set out on the Subject Access Request form
- A copy of identification, e.g. a driving licence or passport or Birth Certificate

What is non-accessible information?

We will be as open as we can about the information we keep on you, but there are certain limits to what we can legally give you access to. For example, we will not give you information:

- About other people, including members of your family
- That needs the permission of the person(s) who gave it to us, before we can pass it on to you
- That may cause harm to you or another person if we gave the information to you

We will inform you if there is any information that we cannot share with you.

What else can you ask us for?

As well as your right to access the information we hold on you by making a Data Subject Access Request, you also have the right to have the information amended, to have it deleted, to have the processing restricted or to object to the processing. This may apply if you believe the information we hold on you is not accurate, untrue or is incomplete. In these circumstances you should contact the Data Protection Lead for DBC Training.

What if you are not happy with what is happening with the information we keep about you?

Firstly please talk to your Assessor/Tutor or the Centre Manager in your current office (if you are attending an in-house course).

Alternatively you can contact the Data Protection Lead for DBC Training –

Website Access and Usage

Our websites use cookies - a cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about webpage traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.
